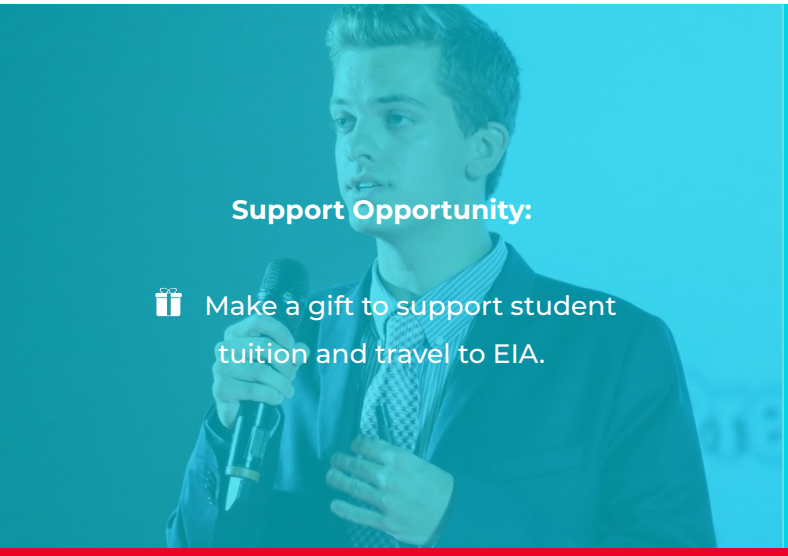
EUROPEAN INNOVATION ACADEMY

European Innovation Academy (EIA)

At EIA, the world's largest study abroad program, our students experience an innovation journey starting from team formation to pitching to investors.

About

European Innovation Academy has become a recognized leader in tech entrepreneurship education. Their non-profit, educational programs are developed through joint partnerships with professionals from the world's top institutions including: Stanford University, U.C. Berkeley, and Google. EIA has 650+ participants and over 100 mentors and speakers from companies like Alchemist Accelerator, Air BnB, Facebook, Google, Adobe, and Microsoft.



Support Opportunity:

Make a gift to support student tuition and travel to EIA.

Ariella Carter

Entrepreneurship Major, Class of 2018

"It is an experience that will grow you personally, it will grow you spiritually, it will grow you emotionally, it will grow you academically, and it will stretch you.
